

Prayer to the Sky-Master

(three-part round)

This prayer was written by the great rebbe Obadiah who called God "Sky-Master" and called himself "Sky-Master's son". Obadiah, Sky-Master's Son, used say: "On Rosh Hashanah the Great Dreidel is spun, and on Yom Kippur it lands."

Jim Propp-Gubin
March 23, 2024

*

A - vi - nu mal - kei - - nu kho - nei - nu v' - a - nei - - nu A - vi - nu mal - kei - nu kho - nei - nu v' - a - nei - nu ki ein ba - nu ma - a - a - sim. A -

5 *

9 (If there are two singers per part they should sing measures 9-16 in antiphony so they can breathe.)

vi - nu mal - kei - nu kho - nei - nu v' - a - nei - nu a - vi - nu mal - kei - nu kho - nei - nu v' - a - nei - nu a - vi - nu mal - kei - nu kho - nei - nu v' - a - nei - nu a - vi - nu mal - kei - nu kho - nei - nu v' - a - nei - nu.

13 *

17

God show us fa - vor to - night - - ! God show us fa - vor to - night - - !

21 *

Roll us a gi - mel on that Drei - del that You spin with - - , God show us fa - vor to - night - - ! A -

Alternate lyrics for third part of round (singers should alternate):

God show us mercy tonight, You who endowed us with the passions that we sin with.

God have rachmones tonight, You who came up with human nature to begin with.